

Neeti Dewan Launches New Book

By Michel W. Potts

(WEST HILLS) - Neeti Dewan threw a lavish party at the Delhi Palace restaurant here April 14 to celebrate the launching of her book, "From Executive to Yogi in 60 Seconds" a Revolutionary Approach to Increasing Productivity, Profitability and Personal Efficiency."

According to her book, she shares secrets and specific techniques that the reader can use to achieve unparalleled personal and professional success. For professionals, she provides easy to learn skills that will enable them to rise to the top of their professions and achieve financial security.

On the personal level, her book promises formulas that help to build a stronger body-mind-spirit; to experience a new level of joy, contentment and serenity and how to develop a more fulfilling relationship with family and friends.

Born in Agra, Dewan moved to Los Angeles as a teenager and later graduated from California State University. A certified public accountant, she has been CEO of her own company and has worked for Fortune 500 companies such as Aramark Corporation, British Petroleum and Hughes Electronics as well as PricewaterhouseCoopers and Arthur Andersen accounting firms.

As part of the book launching, Dewan provided an entertainment program by having Jennifer Drilling and Angela Bagri of the Fire and Ice Dance Company perform a "Dances with Wings" number followed by the Rangala Punjab of Irvine, who performed a Bhangra.